

Cancellations & Refunds

THE RHYTHM RESET · THE PMS PRACTITIONER

Plans change, and that's completely fine — here's exactly where you stand if they do. This page is a summary of the refund policy, written to make sure you have all the information you need, easily, in one place. The Client Terms and Conditions is the full legal document behind it, and takes precedence if anything here ever seems to conflict with it.

Before your Initial Consultation

Full refund. Change your mind before we've had our first session together, and you'll get every penny back — no questions, no admin fee.

After your Initial Consultation

No refund, as a rule. Once we've done the 90-minute consultation, the bulk of the work — understanding your history and building your Plan — is already underway. In genuinely exceptional circumstances, a partial refund may be considered, but this is at Coline's discretion rather than something you can expect as standard.

If the Programme isn't the right fit

Occasionally, a case turns out to need something beyond what Coline can offer — therefore, support from a GP or another practitioner might be deemed necessary. How this is handled depends on timing:

- Before your Initial Consultation: if Coline decides not to move forward, you get a full refund.
- During or after your Initial Consultation: you'll still receive your consultation and a full Plan. You'll get a partial refund covering the two Follow-up Calls you won't use, and Coline will help point you toward the right next step — a letter for your GP, or a referral to someone better placed to help.

Rescheduling a call

Free, any time, with 24 hours' notice. Life happens — reschedule your Initial Consultation or a Follow-up Call as many times as you need, as long as you give at least a day's notice.

Late cancellations and no-shows

Cancelling with less than 24 hours' notice, or missing a session altogether, is treated as follows:

- Missed Initial Consultation: the Programme continues, but with one Follow-up Call instead of two.
- Missed Follow-up Call: that session isn't rescheduled or refunded.

This isn't about being strict for its own sake — each session is time set aside just for you, and this policy protects Coline's time and effort. If something genuinely unexpected comes up, get in touch — Coline uses her discretion with genuine emergencies and extenuating circumstances.

Changing your mind about your data

Withdrawing your consent (covered in the Consent Form and Privacy Notice) follows the same timing rule as above: a full refund if you withdraw before your Initial Consultation, and no refund if you withdraw afterwards. Either way, withdrawing ends the Programme going forward.

How long you have

Once booked, your Programme package is valid for 16 weeks — plenty of room for the typical 8–12 week journey, plus space to reschedule along the way.

This page is a summary, written to make things easy to find — it isn't the legal document itself. The full terms live in the Client Terms and Conditions, and how your data is handled is set out in full in the Privacy Notice. If anything here ever seems to conflict with those documents, the documents apply. Questions, any time — email thepmspractitioner@proton.me.
